Beach, VA 23455

Sponsored by the Whitehurst-Buffington Foundation, a 5013c non-profit

Join us at this special Speakers' Series event by the Whitehurst-Buffington Foundation which includes an 11am special guided tour of the Brock Environmental Center & grounds; lunch at noon in the Oyster Room followed by a PowerPoint presentation "Pirates in Princess Anne County" by local author Al Chewning at 12:30. Enjoy a unique look at Virginia Beach history from a different perspective.

Lunch choices provided by "The Gourmet Gang"

- Turkey and Provolone: basil mayo & roasted red peppers on a baguette
- Ham and Swiss: field greens, tomatoes, chipotle adobo mayo, on ciabatta bread
- Traditional Chicken Salad: field greens, tomatoes on a baguette
- Smoked Tempeh & Avocado: tempeh, lettuce, tomato, avocado, vegenaïse served on a French baguette

Directions to the Brock Environmental Center: From Shore Drive, coming from the east, turn south on East Stratford Road at the stoplight at the foot of the Lesner Bridge. Follow the winding East Stratford Road until you see the brick entrance road to Chesapeake Bay Foundation's Brock Environmental Center. You may park in the designated parking area or if no room, continue on to Marlin Bay Drive and park on the road. If coming from Independence Blvd, turn onto Shore Drive heading east. Drive to Marlin Bay Drive (across from the 7-11 on Shore Drive) and park along Marlin Bay. You will see near the end of the road a white sign for CBF's Brock Center. It's a lovely short walk on a woodland trail to the Center. We will meet in the Oyster Room. There is Handicapped parking close to the building and very limited general parking on site.
